

requirements imposed on any individual who is to serve as a member of the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature. It is therefore the committee's recommendation that Mr. McFarland be certified and seated as a member for the balance of this legislative term of the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature. This was signed unanimously by the members of your committee and we are very pleased to make this report, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Marsh, thank you for your report on the Committee on Credentials. All those in favor of adopting the committee report say aye. Opposed nay. It is accepted. And, Senator McFarland, I am happy to know that the report of the committee was unanimous. I had understood that the vote was 3 to 2, but I understand now it is unanimous. Would you like to say a word?

SENATOR MCFARLAND: Yes, I would. Thank you, as long as I got a majority, I guess that is good enough. I would first like to say that I am sure that this won't be the first problem that we face together as far as getting me seated, there will be a number of other problems that we will face together, and I look forward to confronting and trying to help solve the urgent problems that face the people of our state. It is really an honor and a privilege to be here with you today, the fine senators of the State of Nebraska, and I thank you for your welcome and I look forward to working with you. Thank you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Jim McFarland, we welcome you to the group and I know you will find this the most interesting group you have ever worked with. So we are glad to have you with us and look forward to great things. We want you to know, Senator McFarland, that we are going to work you right off the bat this morning. Now we will move on to LR 357.

CLERK: Mr. President, 357 offered by Senator Wesely is found on page 1168 of the Journal.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you. Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, this resolution is brought to you to commemorate and to recognize the Cornhusker State Games which were established last year. The Cornhusker State Games are started by the Olympic Committee nationally and they are a state-by-state effort to try to promote, on the
